If Irish or UK Tax Resident (including Wales, Scotland or Northern Ireland) Please confirm country of domicile for tax purposes: ²

1. Tax Residence:

You will generally be considered tax resident in a country if you reside or live there for more than a prescribed number of days in a tax year (commonly 183 days) although a country may have other prescribed conditions to be deemed tax resident. The exact number of prescribed days or any other condition(s) is bespoke to each country and if unsure must be confirmed with your local Revenue authority. It is not always where you pay tax.

2. Domicile:

Your Domicile for Tax purposes is usually determined at time of your birth and is commonly (but not always) based on your father's domicile/permanent home at that time. It remains this domicile of origin unless you elected and formally amended your country of tax domicile. If you are unclear on your domicile you can confirm this with the tax authority in the country where you were born.

I confirm that the information provided in this form is to the best of my knowledge true and correct.
